WHO WE ARE?

Building any successful business means being receptive and responsive to change. For a media design business, this key economic principle is even more important. Clients have evolving needs, new markets emerge and new, ever more dynamic media tools and outlets are always being developed to service them.

Being receptive and responsive... keeping this mantra always uppermost in our collective mind is helping Nott Development Studios (NDS) grow into one of the UK's leading Web and Graphic Design houses.

But it nearly wasn't so... after a successful company launch, two of the original business partners decided to move on. Rob was determined to maintain the high standards that had already established the fledgling company rather than close it down. To do this he needed a collaborator with the right skill set and, crucially, a shared vision.

Rob met Mags in the Polish Lake District while visiting their respective families one Christmas. What began as a relaxed holiday chat soon developed into a more detailed analysis of the state of Digital Media.

Realizing that their skill sets are complementing one another perfectly. Rob decided, upon returning to the UK, to turn their informal conversation into a formal business proposition, and asked Mags to join the company as a full partner.

Since then Nott Development Studios has continued to go from strength to strength ... Operating in Cardiff (main office) and London, NDS has rapidly built up a substantial and impressive client list both in the UK and mainland Europe and includes some very happy customers in UK, Poland and Sweden.

The in-house team of handpicked specialists is always at work on a range of projects large and small from simple graphic designs to more complicated e-commerce websites. Please feel free to get in touch to find out more about the NDS story and for an informal chat about your companies design and media development needs.
